

MY FAVORITE ROOM
TAYLOR JACOBSON

Photographed by Amy Bartlam

I worked with a young couple to decorate their colonial style home in Los Feliz. Deep blue was a consistent design theme throughout the house, culminating in the high gloss walls enveloping this cozy den. The space is very representative of my style because it incorporates warm, organic tones through the leather chairs, wood coffee table and bamboo shades, while infusing color and pattern with the walls, textural rug and pillows.
